CENTRAL IDEA: With the world, Satan, and the flesh combined against us, we must watch against the temptations that constantly battle us. We can effectively do so by knowing our enemy, knowing our weaknesses and strengths, and mounting a good offense, that is, by meditating on God’s Word and by prayer.

1. OPEN: Everybody remembers someone that gave them some good advice on growing up when they were younger. Recall that advice. How do you still practice it? If not, why not?
2. DIG: We’ve seen people give into temptation. What signs were there that they failed to watch for? As you think of that person’s sin, do you tend to think, “I would never do something like that”? Explain.
3. DIG: What are some sins that you can’t imagine ever committing? How do you respond to the warning that you should consider yourself capable of even these things? Skeptical? Sobered? Why?
4. DIG: Do you agree that “Christians are no more than 5 to 10 years behind the world in embracing most sinful practices”? Why or why not?
5. REFLECT: It is important for us to be aware of our own weaknesses and where we are vulnerable to sin. What would be a wise precaution you should take to guard yourself in YOUR weakness. What role does church have in your weakness?

F or Him The story has been told of an old ship captain. Every morning the captain would walk into his office, approach a locked desk drawer, take a key out of his pocket, unlock the drawer, take out a book, read and then replace the book and re-lock it in the drawer. He would then go about his duties for the day. For years, the captain’s lieutenant watched him go through this daily ritual.

Upon the captain’s retirement, the lieutenant was promoted to become the new captain. As part of the changing of the ship’s command, the old captain handed over the key to the desk drawer and said, “Guard your ways well, sir, that you follow the advice given in the book. If you do so, you will succeed.”

The new captain couldn’t wait to see what the book contained that had so inspired the old captain and provided so much wisdom all of those years. He anticipated finding the words of another great sea captain, perhaps those of a great philosopher or even the wisdom of the Scriptures. So he rushed right away to the office, unlocked the drawer, pulled out the book and opened it.

In the book he found only one page with writing upon it. On that page were two sentences:

This story is a simple reminder of how some of the basic things in life cannot be overlooked. Living as a Christ-follower is no different. While the Scriptures do challenge us to move towards maturity in our faith, the call to remember the basics is also found. There are some very basic components of the Christian life that we should remind ourselves of repeatedly in order to make sure that we don’t forget and move away from important areas like simple, loving devotion to Christ.

Today, reflect for a moment on how your life might be different if every day when you wake up you remind yourself of the basic truth that you are dead to sin and alive to God through Christ Jesus. This kind of daily reminder might just make a world of difference! (copied www.homeward.com)
